In the Woods

Carol and her younger sister Mary went for a walk in the woods one day. They took their dog Sammy with them. Sammy ran on in front of them. He knew the way very well, for he had been there many times before.

The children found some bluebells growing in the woods, so they picked a bunch for their mother. While they were doing this, Sammy saw a rabbit sitting under a tree. He Barked loudly and ran after it. But he did not catch it, for the rabbit ran into a hole in the ground.
