CLYDE – Happy New Year from Class Clyde! They are looking forward to learning more about feelings this term and will welcome some new children to the class.

ISLAY – have welcomed the start of winter by learning about hibernating animals. They have made hedgehogs by printing quills with forks. They have been investigating ice and seeing how fast and why it melts. They have learned about how to be seen in the dark.

LOMOND – have chosen their new topic for this term and will be learning all about different animals and their habitats. Well done to Jax for settling into new routines in Class Lomond.

NEVIS – have chosen The Second World War for their new topic. Well done to Lewis who gained his white belt with yellow tag in Taekwondo.

THISTLE - the new topic for this term is The Human Body. The class have been learning about the skeleton and have made their own movable skeletons and skeleton crafts out of cotton buds.
