The total raised so far this session for our school from this initiative is £137.10.

Clyde – are learning new fairytales every week. They are having fun being creative and building confidence in literacy. Well done to Harrison who has settled well into Class Islay, making new friendships.

Lomond – are enjoying P.E. with the Sports Coaches from Cardonald College. They have even had some sunny days outside on the MUGA! They have also enjoyed learning about space; the planets, stars and other moons of our solar system.

Nevis – are going to Irvine Beach as part of their Citizen Science Project. Well done to Jax, who has developed his social skills by leading group games.

Thistle - have enjoyed becoming engineers to create their own inventions for the 'If I were an Engineer...' competition. They have also been developing their coding skills in class.

The school will close for the Spring Break on:

Friday 4th April at 2:30pm
 and will re-open on Tuesday 22nd April.
