

Think of a solution

You have bought the same shoes as your friend and she says that you have copied her.

Nobody feels good	One person feels good	Both people feel good

Think of a solution

You and your brother want to watch different programmes on TV. You start to argue.

Nobody feels good	One person feels good	Both people feel good

Think of a solution

You want to wear make-up as all your other friends do, but your parents won't allow you to.

Nobody feels good	One person feels good	Both people feel good

Think of a solution

You want to play games on Friday afternoon but your teacher says you can't because there is still work to be finished.

Nobody feels good	One person feels good	Both people feel good
