Literacy: Handwriting

L.1: I am learning to practise baseline joins.

1. Pick 5 words from your spelling words and write them out 4 times. Practise your best joined handwriting and circle your favourite word with a coloured pencil, just like we do in class!

2. Rewrite this setting description in your best handwriting: (Remember your joins, sizing and letter breaks).

Nervously, I stepped off the small tawny-brown boats and saw an amazing colossal castle towering over me. Almost unbelievably, I had arrived at my destination. Hogwarts – a school of Witchcraft and Wizardry. As I gazed above, I saw a pearl-white moon shining in the coal-black sky which was a magnificent sight. As we made our way through the school, the smell of roast chicken danced through the gaps of the gigantic doors. Suddenly, the enormous door opened – in front of my eyes was the most scrumptious sight. Four long tables were filled with a feast. Colourful cakes and mugs of the beautiful Butterbeer.

The Four Joins

1. to letters without ascenders
2. to letters with ascenders

 Do you have speech marks at the start and at the end of the words being spoken? "Action!" said the director.	 Have you started a new line every time someone new starts speaking? "Can we have a close up?" asked Sarah. "No problem!" replied Thomas.
 Do you have a capital letter at the start of the speech? Bruce said, "Sorry, I forgot my lines."	 Have you remembered to add commas? Paul whispered, "Great job." "Thank you," replied Justine.
 Do you have punctuation inside the speech marks? "That's a wrap!" cheered the producer.	 Inverted commas Quotation marks Speech marks There are 3 names for this piece of punctuation.
