

P5b's Home Learning

Friday 12th February 2021

Please email me at gw20naeemhumira@glow.ea.glasgow.sch.uk with any questions that you may have about your tasks. I would love for you to show me evidence of your great learning also!

Health and Wellbeing:

Are you ready for some Friday Fitness with Joe Wicks?

Tune in to his YouTube channel at 9.00am-9.20am.

Follow the link: <https://www.youtube.com/user/thebodycoach1>

I love these sessions and I most definitely will be joining you P5b!

Why not encourage the rest of your family to join in!

I wonder if you can complete the daily challenge set for today. I would love to see pictures of your findings!

Here is Day 12:

Literacy:

D.E.A.R — select a book, magazine, comic or newspaper at home and read for 15 minutes. Why not build a den using pillows and blankets for a cosy read!

Let's warm up with Pobble for 20 minutes this morning.

Follow link: www.pobble365.com

Please attempt at least two of the following challenges:

- Story Starter!
- Sentence Challenge!
- Question Time!
- Picture Perfect!

*I'm a skyscraper wean; I live on the nineteenth flair,
But I'm no' gaun oot tae play ony mair,
'Cause since we moved tae Castlemilk, I'm wastin' away
'Cause I'm getting' wan meal less every day:*

*Oh ye cannae fling pieces oot a twenty story flat,
Seven hundred hungry weans will testify to that.
If it's butter, cheese or jeely, if the breid is plain or pan,
The odds against it reaching earth are ninety-nine tae wan.*

*On the first day ma maw flung oot a daud o' Hovis broon;
It came skytin' oot the windae and went up instead o' doon.
Noo every twenty-seven hours it comes back intae sight
'Cause ma piece went intae orbit and became a satellite.*

*On the second day ma maw flung me a piece oot wance again.
It went and hut the pilot in a fast low-flying plane.
He scraped it aff his goggles, shouting through the intercom,
"The Clydeside Reds huv goat me wi' a breid-an-jeely bomb."*

*On the third day ma maw thought she would try another throw.
The Salvation Army band was staunin' doon below.
"nward Christian Soldiers" was the piece they should've played
But the oompahman was playing a piece an' marmalade.*

Poetry Task:

Boys and Girls, this is our last week looking at our poem – 'Jeely Piece'. I have not heard you all reciting this yet. So, today your task is to record a video or voice note reciting this Scottish poem. Put on your best Scottish accent and give it a go.

I know you can do it!

French:

Bonjour!

Let's have some fun on French Friday with Mrs Howarth.

I will upload our French plan for today on Seesaw.

Numeracy:

Continue to develop your mental maths with Number of the Day.

Your number is 9.

Put on a timer

Let's see how fast you can answer these questions!

I have included some challenging questions. Give it a go!

The number is between 0 and 20 and a multiple of 1		Your number of the day is 9.		Questions: 12

L1 – I am learning to order fractions.

Today we will be ordering fractions on a number line. Come and join my direct teaching PowerPoint on Seesaw where we will discuss this learning and work through some examples before starting our activity.

Task: Complete the 'Fractions on a Number Line' worksheet on Seesaw.

Fractions on a Number Line

Aim: Compare and order fractions with appropriate denominators and position on the number line.

Put these fractions in the correct position on the number line.

1. $\frac{1}{2}$ $\frac{3}{4}$ $\frac{1}{4}$

2. $\frac{5}{8}$ $\frac{1}{8}$ $\frac{4}{8}$ $\frac{3}{8}$

3. $\frac{9}{10}$ $\frac{2}{10}$ $\frac{7}{10}$ $\frac{6}{10}$

4. $\frac{3}{4}$ $\frac{1}{10}$ $\frac{2}{8}$ $\frac{6}{10}$ $\frac{1}{2}$

Topic: Research and complete the 'Schooling Comparison' worksheet.
