A Look at these picture clues. Write the ost or oll words in your book.

 1 p _____
 2 g _____
 3 t _____
 4 s _____

B Write two words that rhyme with cost. The first letters will give you a clue.

l _____ fr _____

Write three words that rhyme with most.

Write four words that rhyme with toll.

oll oal ole

These letter patterns usually make the same sound. Look at the beginnings of the words and the clues. Each word needs one of the letter patterns. Write the answers in your book.

- f _____ a young horse
- r _____ a small portion of bread
- h _____ space left after something is taken out
- c _____ black rock that burns
- str _____ a gentle walk
- st _____ what the thief did
- p _____ often has a flag at the top
- sh _____ large group of fish

Say these words quietly to yourself:
ball tall also almost

Notice that when the al pattern comes at the end of a word it is usually spelt with two l's, but when it comes at the beginning of a word it is usually spelt with one l.

A Add all or al to make these words. If you are unsure of any, check them in a dictionary.

- 1 _____ so 2 _____ ready 3 sm _____
- 4 f _____ 5 _____ together 6 _____ ways
- 7 st _____ 8 _____ mighty 9 _____ though

B Put the words you have made in alphabetical order. Remember to look at the third, or even fourth, letter.
