

- 1) What do you think the biscuit was used for?
- 2) What do you think the expression on the lady's face would show?
- 3) If you designed a world, what would it be made from?
- 4) Where would it be based?
- 5) How would you look after your world once it has been created?
- 6) Would you keep it a secret or will you tell everyone?

Can you create your own planet? You could draw and describe it. Would the land be all joined together or spread out like the Earth? Would there be seas in between? What colour would it be? What could it be made from?
